about The Roster Te Rārangi

The Roster Te Rārangi

Who's working where in health

Media kit 2021

The Roster Te Rārangi is essential reading for health sector managers who want to keep up to date with who's who in the health and wellbeing sector, arriving free in email inboxes every fortnight.

We're about people changing jobs and adapting to new roles, whether in primary health organisations, DHBs, NGOs or beyond to the wider world of health business and social care.

Huge changes are planned for the sector as you read this, and good communication and integration will, it is hoped, overcome current system fragmentation.

The Roster Te Rārangi will play a key part in keeping the communication lines open.
